Work Certificate

We are pleased to provide this work certificate for Ms. Neda Taghizadeh Serajeh, who was employed as as a working student in the area of Technical Consulting at Serity GmbH since April 1, 2025. Her contract is scheduled to end on August 15, 2025, with a regular working time of 20 hours per week.

Serity GmbH is a specialized ServiceNow partner focusing on Risk and Security. We support organizations of all sizes and industries in managing Security Operations and regulatory compliance using the ServiceNow platform. Our clients rely on us particularly in preparation for audits or to optimize their governance structures through ServiceNow.

In her role as a Junior Technical Consultant, Ms. Taghizadeh Serajeh assisted our consultants on various projects for international enterprise clients. Her responsibilities included:

- Supporting the implementation of ServiceNow solutions
- Preparing user stories and project documentation
- Assisting in the preparation and delivery of IT workshops
- Performing administrative project-related tasks

Ms. Taghizadeh Serajeh approached her tasks with a good sense of structure and demonstrated commitment to learning. She carried out her responsibilities to our full satisfaction at all times.

Her behavior toward colleagues and supervisors was consistently proper and cooperative.

We thank Ms. Taghizadeh Serajeh for her support during her time at Serity and wish her all the best for her further studies and future professional development.

Sincerely,

Hamid Rezai
